

Two machines, working together, takes 2 hours and 24 minutes to complete a task.

On its own, one machine will take 2 hours longer than the other to complete the same task.

How long will the slower machine take on its own?